PRO SE LAW CLERK'S OFFICE

BANKRUPTCY ASSISTANCE FOR PRO SE FILERS

You have filed a case in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Massachusetts without an attorney representing you. You are pro se. As a pro se debtor, you may get information about the bankruptcy process and the filing requirements from the Pro Se Law Clerk's Office. The Pro Se Law Clerk can answer some basic bankruptcy questions.

The Pro Se Law Clerk can give information, but not legal advice. No one from the Clerk's office can provide legal advice. Should you need legal representation, referrals can be made to an appropriate service. In fact, you are encouraged to consult the Pro Se Law Clerk regarding a referral. Bankruptcy is a complicated process with long-term financial consequences. If you fail to file all of the required documents, your case can be dismissed, which will cause you to forfeit rights. Also, re-opening or re-filing is costly!
